

Grappling with the Great War

A lecture series exploring the legacy and impact of World War I on our region.

April 9, July 9, & November 5, 2017

Grappling with the Great War

Admission is free; however, reservations are recommended.
Please call or visit our website for more information.

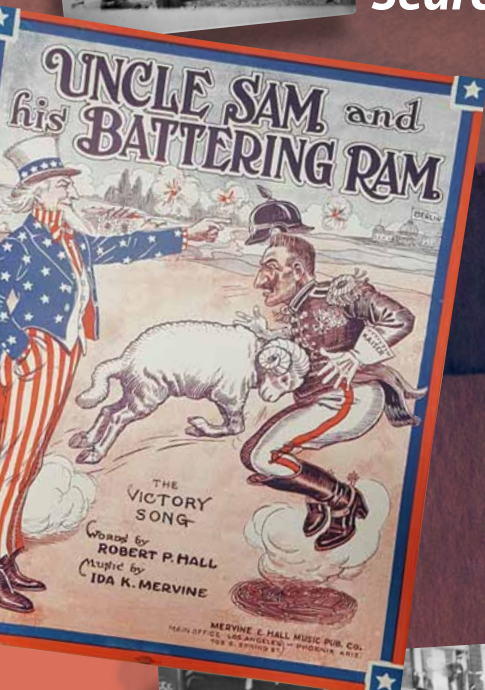

Greg Fischer presents,
La Plaza Abaja: The Evolution of Pershing Square

Sunday, April 9, 2 to 4 p.m.
Reservations begin March 3

Edmon J. Rodman & Paul Spitzzeri present,
Searching for Sergeant Kauffman

Sunday, July 9, 2 to 4 p.m.
Reservations begin May 26

Dr. Jennifer D. Keene presents,
*Wristwatches, Intelligence
Tests, and Hemingway:
The Cultural Impact of World War I on America*

Sunday, November 5, 2 to 4 p.m.
Reservations begin September 22

Homestead Museum • 15415 East Don Julian Road,
City of Industry, CA 91745 • (626) 968-8492 • homesteadmuseum.org