The Homestead Museum provides a unique way to look at Los Angeles's history from the 1840s, when this land was still part of Mexico, through the 1920s, when Los Angeles came to be known worldwide as a major metropolitan city. This six-acre site features the Workman House, a Victorian-era country home constructed around an 1840s adobe; La Casa Nueva, a 1920s Spanish Colonial Revival mansion noted for its architectural crafts; and El Campo Santo, one of the oldest private cemeteries in Southern California. Through all of its programs, the museum strives to create advocates for history through the stories of greater Los Angeles.

In addition to a variety of special events offered throughout the year, free guided tours are available Wednesday through Sunday of the Workman House at 1:00 and 3:00 p.m., and La Casa Nueva at 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. Tours for groups of ten or more are available daily with at least two weeks advance notice. Tours in Spanish are offered the second Sun. of every month at 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. Tours in select foreign languages and American Sign Language are available by reservation. Most of the site is wheelchair accessible. For more information, call (626) 968-8492 or visit homesteadmuseum.org.
